

FUNERAL & MEMORIAL WISHES

In Eleanor Whitfield's own words

READ BEFORE RELYING ON THIS DOCUMENT

This is not a legal will. It reflects personal wishes around funeral, burial, and memorial plans. For estate or property distribution, a will or trust executed according to state law is required.

State laws may grant family members legal priority over funeral decisions. A separate written authorization may be needed in your state to make wishes binding.

For: Eleanor Whitfield

Generated August 15, 2026

Funeral preferences

Small. St. Anne if they will have me, and if they will not, the garden is fine. I would like the grandchildren to say something, but only if they want to.

Burial or cremation

Cremation

With Walter, in the plot at Fairhaven. It is already paid for and the paperwork is in the green folder in the desk.

Memorial or celebration of life

Afterwards at the house. Somebody make the lemon cake, the recipe is in the tin. No catering.

Pre-arranged plan

Yes

Fairhaven Memorial, paid in 2019. Contract number in the green folder. Claire has a copy.

SeniorThrive

Independence at home. Strength together.

seniorthrive.com · seniorthrive.com/privacy

FUNERAL & MEMORIAL: NOT A LEGAL WILL · Generated August 15, 2026